'TIS THE SEASON

What are your holiday entertaining essentials?

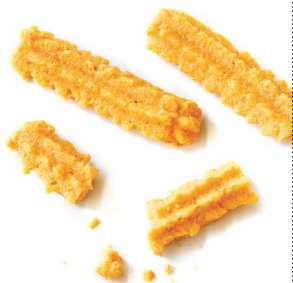

MICHELLE NUSSBAUMER

Friends, family, and my lamb-and-mint meatball recipe. And I can't do without fresh flowers.

LETA AUSTIN FOSTER

Rigaud's Cypres Bougie D'ambiance candle is my must-have, but I'm fond of their cinnamon-scented candle too.

BETH WEBB

A well-stocked bar and a good Southern cheese straw!

CHARLOTTE MOSS Scented candles, Motown Christmas music, and evergreens everywhere—from the front gate to the mantels to the tops of bookcases.

A good, original cocktail makes the perfect icebreaker. I love serving them in vintage etched-crystal coupes. I'm partial to a French 75 for the holidays, but they pack quite a wallop!

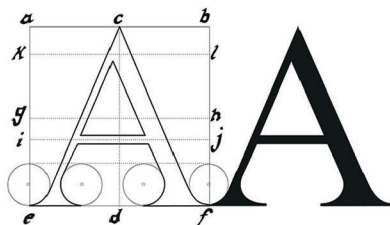

—DANIELLE ROLLINS

An exquisitely set dining table. I always use my Ralph Lauren Empress dinnerware, Ricci Bamboo silver, and cobalt glassware. Fresh paperwhites, pepper berries, and greenery complement the look without overpowering the table. Simple white unscented taper candles add ambiance without interfering with the aromas of good food and wine.
